

Spill Absorbent Products

Absorbent series products including pads, socks and pillows, are using the materials of Melt Blown Polypropylene (MBPP) with features of high and rapid absorption, safe and healthy operation, easy and simple cleaning and low disposal cost. Absorbent products are widely used for prevent oil, chemical leakage risk happened in laboratories, manufactures, transplantation, marine emergency rescue, ports, medical industries etc.

Absorbent products can be used by types separately or by kits set.

Absorbent Pads

Absorbent Pads are used for large areas of water surface or ground with oil pollution or chemical leakage. With easy-tear lines, it is quick for you to use suitable size in the case of an emergency.

Absorbent Socks

Absorbent Socks are designed soft and flexible, normally be placed in the surrounding of oil pollution and chemical leakage like oil tankers, oil pipelines, workshop machinery and water surface to prevent oil from leaking and spreading.

Absorbent Pillows

Absorbent Pillows with smaller size but larger absorption, are applied to oil and chemical leakage floors, faucets, valves, machinery etc. It is perfectly suitable for being placed under pipes and uneven areas.

